

Charles "Chick" Leo

Class of 1985

Chick Leo was Class President of the Class of 1985, and a National Merit Scholar. In addition to that he was voted "Most Likely To Succeed", played Varsity football, baseball, basketball, and was Powderpuff Football Cheerleading Captain.

Chick went on to Florida State University College of Law and graduated in 1991. He practiced as an Insurance Lawyer the first five years of practice, before starting his own law firm on January 1st 1997—Law Offices of Charles H. Leo, P.A. in Orlando. He's been Board Certified since 1998 and was recently declared a Florida Superlawyer since 2008 (the links to Superlawyers still has his bio as proudly being a Cocoa Beach product).

He and his wife, Maria Fabre, live in Winter Park and still maintain a home in Brevard County (Melbourne Beach). Chick and Maria have two children—Alexa and Brandon, and spend free time at the beach—surfing and fishing—in between Seminole football and little league.
